Michael T. Gillis, owner, has been in the hair salon business for over 18 years. Having spent his time at a high end salon on the east side of Providence, he has learned how to treat his clients with the quality service and personal treatment that they have come to know and deserve.

After gaining experience and knowledge from his previous employer, he decided to break off on his own and truly give his clients a personal touch.

Michael takes pride in the work and services that he offers to his clients, and he strives to make sure that every visit to his salon is an enjoyable one.
